Volunteering-get in on the action at Big Tent

Now that you have seen how fabulous our music bill is why not come along and volunteer at the festival this year? Volunteering is a fun way of getting involved with the festival and it means you can really be at the heart of the event. If you are interested in helping as volunteer please fill out a simple volunteering form on the website: www.bigtentfestival.co.uk/eco-friendly-products.htm

Bursaries for volunteers - do you need help with travel and other expenses?

Wave of Friendship is a great opportunity for volunteers to take part in Big Tent 2012. For volunteers from London there are bursaries of up to £500 in expenses and for Scotland only, there are bursaries of up to £100 to encourage volunteering in different parts of the country. Visit the website for more information.

More announcements coming soon!

Although we love our music, Big Tent is all about spreading the word on the latest environmental initiatives and issues. We will be announcing an exciting programme of debates, talks, workshops and hands on activities soon and we are sure our fans will be delighted with the many layers to this year's programme.
